About ArcDR<sup>3</sup>

ArcDR<sup>3</sup> Initiative is an international platform that brings together 11 Universities from Pacific Rim region for the production and exchange of knowledge on environmental design that reduces the risk of recurring disasters and enhances resilience through the integration of theory (research) and practice (design).

ABOUT THE SYMPOSIUM

ArcDR<sup>3</sup> Forum Vol.1: New Agendas for Regenerative Urbanism is the first ArcDR<sup>3</sup> event in the series of research, symposia, and exhibitions organized by the Initiative.

Under the umbrella of Grand Syllabus, proposed by ArcDR<sup>3</sup> Initiative, 11 Participating Universities from the region with recurring risks of natural disasters, present local syllabi for the context-specific design studio in the 2020-2021 academic year.

The event is organized as part of the APRU Multi-Hazards Forum and serves as a stage for the presentation and exchange of local syllabi developed by participating universities and the discussion for the future education of Architecture and Urban Design.

Culminating projects will be discussed in conferences, shown in exhibitions, and compiled into a publication.

LIVESTREAMING WILL TAKE PLACE ON JUNE 26, AT 4 PM PDT / JUNE 27, 8 AM JST TO JOIN CLICK HERE EVENT LIVESTREAM LINK
